

Contents

Foreword . . . . .	9
TERESA GARDOCKA, Deprivation of freedom in order to examine a person's mental state in Polish law . . . . .	11
EWA GRUZA, From crime through the media to sentence . . . . .	21
PIOTR HERBOWSKI DOMINIKA ŚLAPCZYŃSKA, Monitoring the behavior of persons convicted of sexual offenses . . . . .	35
DARIUSZ JAGIEŁŁO, Mental illness and a witness in a criminal trial (selected problems at the interface between law and medicine) . . . . .	51
PIOTR JÓŹWIAK, Some legal repressive methods of drug and alcoholism prevention, including particularly designer drugs, by municipalities . . . . .	63
BARBARA LEŚNIAK, MAREK LEŚNIAK, The willingness to report crimes within the context of a victim's psychological circumstances . . . . .	83
ANNA MALICKA-OCHTERA, Stalking from the perpetrator's and victim's perspective . . . . .	105
ANNA M. ZIÓŁKOWSKA, Suicides of children and young people before the Second World War and the present: What has changed, and what has remained unchanged . . . . .	117