

Table of Contents

Foreword (Jan Urbaniak) 9

Imagology

Bram Caers, Spanish bloodhounds raid the Netherlands: A manuscript with subversive texts from the southern Netherlands viewed from an imagological perspective 17

Boris Djubo, The picture of the lack of images and the anthropomorphic representations in the German and Dutch grammar of the Baroque, caused by linguistic principles and denominational motivation 31

Albert Gielen, The wall of more than concrete. The narratives of Cees Nootboom in Berlijnse notities (Berlin notes) 53

Ewa Górecka, Holland as a space of knowledge and cognitive receptivity: The image of the Netherlands in Olga Tokarczuk’s Flights from the perspective of looking 71

Paul Hulsenboom, The Polish Hercules. Romeyn de Hooghe and the Dutch reception of Jan III Sobieski before the Relief of Vienna 87

Christopher Joby, The role of sources in imagology: A case study of Flemish migrants, English inhabitants, officials and leaders in Norwich in the 16th century 111

Alan Moss, “Die van de religie”. Protestants on the Grand Tour in France in the 17th century 125

Andreas Nijenhuis-Bescher, The Sun King and the Republic. The representation of the Netherlands in the Hall of Mirrors of the Palace of Versailles 139

Jelica Novaković-Lopušina, Gustaaf Schamelhout and the Yugoslav question of nationality: Flemish reflections 165

Marcin Polkowski, “Beyde borghers, beyde leken, en van al de rest ghelijck, buyten geus en catholijck”. The image of ecumenity in communal relations in the Roomsche reijs and Extractum catholicum by Joannes Stalpart van der Wiele 179

“Tolerance”. Dutch Days at the Catholic University in Lublin (2018)

Jana Engelbrechtová, Wilken Engelbrecht, A one-off in Europe. Hugo Grotius and his Jewish regulations 207

Marijke Meijer Drees, Tolerant, convincing and contemporary. De Synode over gewetensvrijheid (The Synod on the Freedom of Conscience) (1582) by Dirck Volkertszoon Coornhert 229

Various articles

Pavĺina Knap-Dlouhá, The role of the community interpreter in society 249

Martina Vitáčeková, “Kom je algauw bij mannen terecht”: Alles verandert (Everything changes) by Kristien Hemmerechts (2015) as feminist rewriting 263

Book review

Joanna Skubisz, The wonderful world of books in the National Museum of Wrocław (review of Barbara Fercowicz, Maria Piotrowska, Sztuka druku. Europejskie oficyny wydawnicze w starodrukach Biblioteki Muzeum Narodowego we Wrocławiu. Katalog wystawy . Wrocław: Muzeum Narodowe we Wrocławiu, 2018)	279
---	-----