

Contents

“The least known German classic”? (Krzysztof Łukasiewicz)	9
I. Herder on culture
Ewa Kosowska, Thoughts about the Outlines	21
Krzysztof Moraczewski, Instrumental music and language. Herder’s position in the 18th-century music and aesthetic debate	35
Ewa Kosowska, Apology of tolerance. Herder’s remarks on Eurocentrism	59
Małgorzata Rygielska, Around Johann Gottfried Herder’s Auch eine Philosophie der Geschichte zur Bildung der Menschheit	73
Konrad Kopel, Reconstructing the meaning and function of the concepts of force and form in Johann Gottfried Herder’s Myśli o filozofii dziejów	91
II. Herder in thought on culture
Vida Savoniakaitė, A romantic nation: Eduards Volters’ concepts of ethnographical-statistical studies of Lithuania	107
Kamila Gęsikowska, On some implications of the use of la culture, la civilisation terms in the French translation of Johann Gottfried Herder’s Ideen zur Philosophie der Geschichte der Menschheit	127
III. Archives	143
IV. Continuations
Kamil Lipiński, From Frankfurt’s distraction of perception to the effect of decentration in the network	151
V. Reviews	167