

Contents

Articles

Magdalena Budyn-Kulik, Criminalization of the promotion of totalitarianism (fascism) in the Polish Penal Code	7
Damian Rafał Kaczan, Freedom of economic activity — considerations based on the case of a “printer from Łódź”	23
Bartłomiej Krzan, Desirability of codifying crimes against humanity by the UN International Law Commission	45
Tomasz Kalisz, Work of convicts in the prison system of the People’s Republic of Poland in 1944–1969	69
Przemysław Malinowski, State enterprise as an entity in arbitration procedure during the decline of the PRL’s command economy system	85
Witold Małecki, Economic-administrative law in Pyotr Ivanovich Stuchka’s “two sectors” theory	101
Paweł Jabłoński, Radbruch’s formula from the perspective of Herbert L.A. Hart’s critique . . .	119
Przemysław Kaczmarek, The banality of evil as a problem of moral responsibility in legal discourse	145
Grzegorz Ławnikowicz, In search of the essence of a new authoritarian order. Antoni Peretiatkowicz’s concept of democratic caesarism	163
Dominik Héjj, From Authoritarianism of Kádár period to the parliament elections in 1990 — difficult beginnings of the Hungarian political transformation	183
Marcin Rojszczak, Bulk surveillance programs and the concept of authoritarian state	207

Reviews

Agnieszka Kosmecka, The politics of music — misuses	247
---	-----