

Notes on Authors

Mahmut Zeki Akarsu — a master's student in Managerial Economics at the University of Wrocław. He earned his bachelor degree at Hacettepe University in Turkey. He has worked in a few companies as a stock market broker, and received his stock market broker license from the Capital Market Board of Turkey.

mahmutzekiakarsu@gmail.com

Danny Assad — a master's student in Managerial Economics at the University of Wrocław. He earned his bachelor degree at Blekinge Institute of Technology in Sweden. He managed a company in the marble sector as a founder and CEO.

danny_92a@hotmail.com

Anna Barańska — PhD student at the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Jagiellonian University and a graduate of the Italian and European Law School at the University of Warsaw. She completed general training at the National School of Judiciary and Public Prosecution.

anna.baranska@doctoral.uj.edu.pl

Krzysztof Bokwa — a graduate of the Law and Administration Faculty of the Jagiellonian University, a doctoral candidate in the Common History of Law Department at the Jagiellonian University and an attorney in Kraków.

krzysztof.bokwa@doctoral.uj.edu.pl

Łukasz Chyla — Ph.D. Candidate at the Institute of Private Business Law at the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Jagiellonian University. He has completed several scholarship programs and research stays, including Melbourne Law School, Bucerius Law School, Cambridge University and Columbus Law School. Principal Investigator of SYLFF and NCN Preludium research grant at Warsaw University, Faculty of Law. The main subject of the doctoral thesis is the analysis of the impact of prospectus obligations on the information efficiency of capital markets. Author of publications and conference papers, primarily in the field of commercial law and commercial arbitration.

lukasz.chyla@doctoral.uj.edu.pl

Marta Daćków — Attorney at Law, Master of German and Polish Law (LL.M.) at European University Viadrina. Master of Law at Adam Mickiewicz University. Lecturer at the H. Grotius Center for Intellectual Property Rights in Kraków. She prepares a doctoral thesis about the algorithmization of decision processes in the context of discrimination at the Centre for Legal Education and Social Theory, University of Wrocław. Her research interests oscillate around widely understood IT and AI law, intellectual property law, and anti-discrimination law.

marta.dackow@dclaw.pl / marta.dackow@uwr.edu.pl

Katarzyna Godek — a graduate of Economics at the Faculty of Law, Administration and Economics at the University of Wrocław. During her studies, she was actively involved in numerous projects of student organizations, including the work of the Scientific Circle of Economists. She is also a graduate of Postgraduate Studies in the Law of Structural Funds of the European Union at the Faculty of Law, Administration and Economics of the University of Wrocław and Postgraduate Qualifying Studies in the field of pedagogical preparation at the University of Wrocław at the Teacher Education Center.

Currently, she is a doctoral student at the Institute of Economic Sciences at the Faculty of Law, Administration and Economics.

She is interested in regional development, micro, small and medium-sized enterprises, and the effectiveness of human capital management in the labor market.

She speaks and writes fluently in English and has a basic command of German.

katarzyna.godek@uwr.edu.pl / europrosum@interia.pl

Iwo Jarosz — a graduate of the Law and Administration Faculty of the Jagiellonian University, a doctoral candidate in the Civil Law Department at the Jagiellonian University and an attorney at law in Kraków.

iwo.jarosz@doctoral.uj.edu.pl

Oliver Koch — serves as Global Demand Planning Manager at KARL STORZ SE & Co. KG. Oliver holds a master's degree in Managerial Economics from the University of Wrocław and a bachelor's degree in Business Studies and Economics from the University of Konstanz. During his studies, Oliver was particularly interested in behavioral economics.

koch.oliver@outlook.de

Kacper P. Kurek — a master's student in Managerial Economics at the University of Wrocław. He earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Winnipeg in Canada. He also completed a pre-master's program at the University of Winnipeg. During his university education he has worked in the automotive sector as a specialist.

kurekk22@gmail.com

Kamil Mazurkiewicz — MSc of finance and accounting, attendee of postgraduate studies Management Accounting and Controlling at SGH — Warsaw School of Economics and HR and payroll in law and practice at Koźminski University, payroll department employee in enterprises from the mining industry.

kamil.mazurkiewicz@poczta.umcs.lublin.pl

Piotr Artur Olechowski — pianist (piano studies in the Władysław Żeleński State Secondary School of Music in Kraków), mechatronics engineer (engineering degree at the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering and Robotics of the AGH University of Science and Technology in Kraków), L.L.M. degree at the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Jagiellonian University (Master thesis submitted under professor R. Markiewicz supervision). Alumnus of the American Law School by Columbus School of Law in collaboration with Jagiellonian University. Served as a volunteer lawyer at Jagiellonian University Legal Clinic. He was a president of Intellectual Property Law TBSP student research group, vice-president of the Civil Law Student Association—the largest Private Law research group in Poland. He also served as a member of board in Towarzystwo Biblioteki Słuchaczy Prawa (The oldest Polish Students Scientific Association). Currently, Ph.D. Candidate in the Doctoral School in the Social Sciences — Legal Sciences at Jagiellonian University. His doctoral thesis concern surrogacy agreement. Author of numerous scientific publications and conference papers, primarily in the field of civil, copyright, medical and commercial law.

piotr.olechowski@doctoral.uj.edu.pl

Zuzanna Raszczyk — fifth-year law student at the Faculty of Law, Administration and Economics of the University of Wrocław. Her research interests focus on tax law and commercial law. A scholarship holder of the rector of the University of Wrocław for the best students.

289508@uwr.edu.pl

Mehmet Sevgin — a PhD student at University of Wrocław, Faculty of Social Sciences, Institute of Political Sciences, Doctoral College of Political and Administrative Sciences. He finished his master's degree at the Institute of Social Sciences, Department of Economics at Yıldız Technical University and his bachelor's degree at Department of Economics at Yıldız Technical University.

His dissertation topic in his doctoral studies is behavioural public policies in which he attempts to apply behavioral economics into public policies. He aims to find significant differences between the traditional and behavioral ways of public policymaking in several application areas such as education system, health system, retirement savings and energy consumption.

His main interests are: cognitive biases and heuristics, behavioural economics, behavioural public policies, nudge theory, development economics, sustainable development, poverty, multiculturalism and minority rights.

sevgin.mehmet92@gmail.com

Tristan Skupniewicz — graduate of law at the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Jagiellonian University in Kraków, alumnus of the School of French Law in collaboration with Université d'Orléans and participant of the Master en droit des affaires course at the Université d'Orléans. Interested in EU law and its regulations on vehicle type approval.